

INTRODUCTION

Anand Institute of Information Science, Anand is organizing a National Seminar IT-FUTURA-2013 on 2nd March, 2013. We look forward to your participation and support in making this seminar a success.

OBJECTIVES OF SEMINAR

- The main purpose of the seminar is to cover various topics of current trend in IT.
- The basic aim is to gather experts from academic institutions, industries and research organizations from all over the nation to discuss advances in IT and foster an environment conducive to exchanging ideas and information.
- To facilitate interaction of students with eminent academicians, researchers and practitioners.

ABOUT THE INSTITUTE

Anand Institute of Information Science, Anand is affiliated to Gujarat Technological University - Ahmedabad, approved by A.I.C.T.E and accredited 'B' grade with CGPA 2.57 by NAAC. The institute was established in 2001 with a view to imparting post graduate computer education to young students of surrounding areas and from all over Gujarat.

Since inception our institute is privileged by the care and leadership from the management of Shri Ramkrishna Seva Mandal.

At AIIS we have been facilitating multiple aspects of student persona by organizing various events such as these every year.

HOW TO REACH

Anand can be reached by rail and road. A large number of trains ply between Mumbai and Ahmedabad. Anand is also directly connected by rail to other important cities of India including Bangalore, Bhopal, Bhuvaneshwar, Calcutta, Delhi, Hyderabad, Madras and Tiruvananthapuram. The institute is about 2 km far from Anand railway station and 0.5 km from bus station. The nearest Airport is Vadodara.
