

Anand Pharmacy College

Shinning in

Semi Final National Level IPA Elocution Competition-2012

Anand Pharmacy College (APC) managed by Shri Ramkrishna Seva Mandal has always believed in the multifaceted development of students. APC has continuously contributed in areas of Continuous Education, Seminars, Presentations, Research as well as guiding for better performance in State as well as National level co-curricular activities for the students.

Every effort put in by APC has been welcomed and supported by the students and they have responded with great zeal, optimism and enthusiasm. The result of which has been evident in the progress of the students as individuals and the institute as whole. Recently one more accomplishment has been added in the form of success achieved from student of first semester M.Pharm in Pharmacology - Ms. Shreya Singh by standing at 2nd Rank at State Level IPA Elocution Competition on topic “ Pharma Education- Present Scenario and Future Perspectives ” held on 9th November 2012 at L.M. college of Pharmacy, Ahmedabad.

In accordance Ms. Shreya singh - student of First semester M. Pharm Pharmacology from APC brought pride to the institute by standing at 4th Rank at Semi final of National Level IPA Elocution Competition held on 23 November 2012 at Hyderabad.

We extend our heartiest congratulations to her and all contributors and hope that many will be motivate to perform the same in future.