

JVIMS –MBA Institute organized, as part of bridging the gap between theory and practice, mutual fund manager's meet on 15 th Oct 2010 where mutual fund companies manager addressed the students for their careers.

The objective of meet was to expose the students and give them knowledge about mutual fund industry. The students were directed to the growth available in industry. JVIMS-MBA strives for excellence of its students to become good managers. With these objective managers of various fund houses and mutual fund distributors were invited to address the students

In this meet topics discussed by manager was Introduction to mutual fund industry , opportunities , trends and future of mutual fund industry , how mutual fund are marketed , skill set required for career in Mutual fund industry. From this discussion students get exact information about career path in mutual fund industry.

Dignitaries' presents were Mr. Bhartesh Shah -Trustee, Mr. Sonil Shah - Committee member, Dr. K. J. Thankachan –Campus Director, Dr. Ajay Shah – Deputy Director.

Mutual Fund Companies manager were present from ICICI Prudential Mutual fund- Mr. Sandip Santdasani, HDFC AMC- Mr. Nirav Joshi, Kotak Mutual Fund- Mr. Stavan Upadhyay, Axis Mutual Fund- Mr. Chirag Avlani, Religare Mutual Fund –Mr. Nirav Shukla, IDFC Mutual fund- Mr. Dipesh Rughani, Sundaram Mutal fund- Mr. Amit Sheth, N. J India Investment- Mr. Ravindra Pansara.

This meet was organized by Prof. Prgnesh Patel -Placement Incharge and Prof. Sheetal Rana –Placement coordinator.

As a part of JVIMS Conclave this was the first meet of its kind. In the coming days schedule is arranged for managers from stock broking houses, banking sector, retail sector, etc. This would allow the students to get exposure from all sectors and help them in making their career decisions.