He also focused on the importance of ethics and cautioned young managers against frequent changes in career for monetary inducements .

In welcome address by Dr.PGK Murthy , Director of the Institute explained the purpose of alumni association and pleaded for active participation of alumni in the development of the Institute . Dr.Murthy also apprised the Alumni of progress made by the Institute in various spheres and sought their assistance in providing better guidance to students.

Prof.( Wg. Cdr ) V K Agarwal, Dr.BijZaveri, Prof.Rajkumari Soni, Prof. Preeti Nair and Prof.Bhavik Mehta , faculty members shared their experiences through touching speeches with alumnus.

Next we had the introduction and exchange of remarks by the alumni.Representatives from each batch who walked up the podium gracefully to throw light about their batches. An opportunity was given to every alumnus to share his / her experience at the Institute and its impact on their career . Many of them went through memory lane of their student career at Parul campus . The alumnus shared their corporate experience with all batch mates and gave guidance to current batch MBA students. All the participants opined that the alumni could play an active role in the growth and development of PIET-MBA. The alumni expressed that they were proud to be a part of the institute. Many of the Alumni expressed their willingness to help the Institute in summer internships , industrial visits , expert talks in emerging areas of Management and also in final placement .

There were alumni present from various leading corporate houses such as State Bank of India, Transpek-silox, Sew Euro Drives Ltd, Garden Vareli, HDFC, ICICI Bank, Tata Consultancy Services, 20 Microns, Shankar packaging, etc with prestigious positions in Management cadre. All Alumni are placed at prestigious high positions in corporate field as well as in academic field. This list is unending as the PIET((MBA) alumni have grabbed the entry level positions everywhere with their skills and abilities. The PIET(MBA) alumni have always stood for integrity and dignity. Excellence awards were given to the best five students for their academic as well as their excellent performance in corporate field.

After serious ceremonies, the present students' union cheered the crowd with a "Game-show" which attempted to bring on stage a veritable composition on the dias. Then, came the time for fun, excitement and joy as lot many group games were played with all the alumnus and faculty members to gather where many people won lot of prizes. Eventually, alumni networking took place and it found many people exchanging their contact details in form of visiting cards, mobile numbers and e-mail ids.

It is a matter of pride for the institute that many alumni have been continuing to register greater and greater success in corporate world while some in academics and in own businesses . The strength of the institute is growing form year to year with the enrollment of every outgoing batch of students. The Program ended with a vote of thanks by Dr.PGK Murthy. In the evening a cultural program Dhoom 2011 was arranged at Parul campus which was followed by dinner.

Everyone appreciated the troubles undertaken by Alumni in attending the Alumni meet despite busy schedules and efforts put in by the students , faculty and staff of the Institute as well as support extended by Trustees in organizing the Grand Alumni Meet “SAMANVAY 2011” for the Second time in the Parul Campus. The Alumni Meet ended with National Anthem.
