Mrs. Ropa Gupta was an intelligent, creative and energetic lady. An M.Sc. in 07 Q.4 Chemistry, she was a housewife. Her husband, an M.A. in economics, was a bank official. Both hailed from a non- business background. Mrs Gupta wanted to get absorbed in a creative activity with some earning potential.

> Rural Crafts and metal handicrafts held a special appeal for her. She started giving outlet for her creative urge by participating in annual exhibitions organized by NGOs. Winning prizes and appreciation increased her interest in crafts.

> At one such exhibition, she came into contact with an American interested in artificial jewellery. Mrs. Gupta, got these fabricated through local artisans, and showed them to the American customer, who was highly appreciative. Subsequently, an arrangement was made to book a few consignments to the USA through an exporter.

> After the success of this endeavour, Mrs Gupta looked to the prospects in export business. Together with a bank loan and money from friends and relatives, she floated their own exporting firm, Medha International. Ornaments, brassware, paper mache products and lacquer miniatures from Andhra Pradesh and Jaipur constituted the main items of export.

> During her foreign tours Mrs. Gupta discovered that ornamental cane furniture could be another promising export item. Through observation, direct interaction with customers and reading, she formed a practical idea about the type and design of caneware that would appeal to the western customers.

> Back home, she explored the north eastern regions of the country to find out about cane products available there. Mrs. Gupta quickly switched over to exporting cane furniture only, as there was no competition at all. She provided work to all 60 traditional artisans and tribals who took pride in the fact that their work traveled globally and that they contributed to the country's earnings.

> Mrs. Gupta's marketing strategy was simple. She would display her wares at exhibitions in different parts of the world and book orders directly. Every year, Mrs. Gupta would come up with new designs. She did not take part in exhibitions in India nor did she allow anybody to see her designs. This step eliminated any possibility of imitation and resultant in competition. Only trusted employees were allowed to see the designs and since the employees were a satisfied, happy lot, there was no question of any breach of trust.
