Sub: Shifting of students from the six existing PPP Degree Engineering Colleges.

Ref: Govt. of Gujarat, Education Department letter No.Misc/102010/3089/S dated 29.12.2010.

Sir,

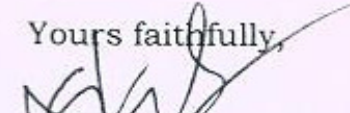

The State Government has started six Degree Engineering Colleges under Public-Private Partnership (PPP) mode in the year 2009 at Amreli, Jamnagar, Porbandar, Surendranagar, Navsari & Vadnagar. The State Government after due consideration has decided to shift the students studying at these engineering colleges, as a special case, to accommodate at other degree engineering colleges on merit-cum-preference basis. The branches are (1) Civil Engineering, (2) Mechanical Engineering, (3) Electrical Engineering, (4) Electronics & Communication Engg., (5) Computer Engineering & (6) Information Technology. Copy of letter under reference is attached herewith.

In this context, the Committee urgently seeks willingness of the existing self-financed degree engineering colleges to accommodate the students from PPP colleges and the maximum number of students can be accommodated as also number of vacant seats in each discipline in the ensuing 2nd and 4th semester, with the following conditions:

1. The students, at present, appeared 3rd semester examination and need to be admitted in 4th semester and the detained students need to be admitted in 2nd semester.
2. The college shall be allowed to collect maximum fees @ ₹30,000/- per student per annum till completion of his course. The fee can be collected per semester only.
3. The college has to give an undertaking to the effect that the college will collect the fees from these students at the prevailing rate in the PPP colleges (i.e. ₹30,000/- per annum), and no additional fee shall be collected from them.
4. All the students are enrolled under Gujarat Technological University.

As the new academic term of the University starts from 03.01.2011, you are requested to send your reply immediately so as to reach this office on or before 5.1.2011, by fax No.079-26304118 as well as by post.

Yours faithfully,

Member Secretary
