Submit your final year project details online for University Record: For all the final year students in BE who are passing out this year.

All the Final year BE students are hereby informed to submit their final year project works online in the given link. GTU will keep a record and disclosable contents (like the title and the abstract) will be put on GTU's website for students and faculties to appreciate and refer to them further. All the Teams who have done projects (IDPs/UDPs) have to submit their works mandatorily. All the teams can directly upload their works in the given link.

N.B. : Please note that the Project Report is a document (like the answer-book of a student), which the University has used to allocate marks. Hence a copy of the document is required before the result for the student can be declared. Please note that this is a process, used by all the Universities. Hence each team must ensure that the project report is uploaded.
