

Report on GTU Technical Festival in Association with BITS edu campus

GTU Tech Fest: Zone 3

14 -15 March 2014

GTU Tech Fest: Zone 3

Aahvan was organised in the year 2006 by BITS edu campus to give an opportunity to students to expand their technical horizon and to apply the knowledge obtained from books in practical situations. The initial success of the 2006 technical fiesta gave a boost to the institution to raise the stakes and host Aahvan on a larger scale in 2008. Eventually the event became profound and popular. As a part of Aahvan 2012, we the organizers of GTU Zonal Fest had seen the massive efforts put behind this event. This year, however, we had a greater responsibility. BITS edu campus in collaboration with GTU is organizing a zonal level tech fest for the first time. The enthusiasm and excitement is unprecedented and each member of the team feels immensely excited and proud to present

GTU Tech Fest: Zone 3

ABOUT GTU Tech Fest: Zone 3

A mega carnival where young minds with innovative thoughts come under one roof to showcase their skills. This tradition of inviting the future engineers and pharmacists and promoting their ideas has indeed gained fame and name all over. We the students of BITS edu campus are privileged to take forward this tradition with greater dedication and enthusiasm.

MYRIAD OF OPPORTUNITIES

The stage is all set;
For scintillating, stimulating moments to come,
Education with adventures;
And unleashing enthusiasm with ample fun,
The technocrats, the budding engineers;
Have oceans of knowledge,
facing upcoming frontiers,
Here ideas meet solution;
Talent meets transformation;
We the BITians invite all the future technocrats;
Through a humble invocation.

Comments

“Best wishes for the grand success of Aahvan 2014.”

-Dr. APJ ABDUL KALAM,
Former President of India

“My best wishes for the grand success of GTU Technical Festival, Aahvan ‘14.”

Shri. BHUPENDRASINH CHUDASAMA
Education & Law Minister
Govt. of Gujarat

“Students are the foundation of tomorrow’s India. They are like birds having new wings, anxious and enthusiast to explore the world. What they need is a bit of encouragement and motivation, to help them spread their wings, provided all these, their potential knows no limit; for them, the sky is the limit. With the rise of the use of technology in day to day life for overall development of any nation, it is really welcome that the BITS edu campus is organizing a GTU Technical Festival aptly titled Aahvan ‘14 - A myriad of opportunities to encourage the budding engineers and pharmacists to prove their worth. I congratulate all the associates of the organizers and hope that the event will unveil many potential youths before us. I also wish all success to the magazine being published on the event.”

Comments

“My heartiest congratulations to Team Aahvan of BITS edu campus for organizing the first TechFest of Gujarat Technological University. I believe that jointly we can make the University a great place of learning.”

- Dr. Akshai Aggarwal
Vice Chancellor
Gujarat Technological University

It gives me immense pleasure and satisfaction to note that GTU is organizing a grand technical esta, GTU Technical Festival 2014 in association with BITS edu campus, Varnama (Aahvan 14-A myriad of opportunities) on 14 & 15 March, 2014. I congratulate Babaria Institute of Technology and Pharmacy and their family to have such a grand event with the cardinal objective to inculcate technical dexterity and put to test the technical prowess of the budding engineers and pharmacist from different engineering and pharmacy domains. I am also happy to note that techno fest Aahvan in 2006, 2008 and 2012 was attended by more than 2700 students from elite colleges all over the nation. I am sure that this year techno fest Aahvan will also witness an active participation of students more than that attended during the last years. The interaction thereat are bound to be well focused. I wish technical esta a grand success.

- Dr. Jayshree Mehta
M.S., F.I.C.S.
President
Medical Council of India

“My best wishes for the smooth and positive transition of Aahvan ‘14.”
Dhruv J. Patel
Vice Chairman

Valedictory Ceremony

It was an occasion to honour the achievers of various challenging, Innovative and skills oriented events of the GTU Tech Fest: Zone 3. The central dome was packed with participants eagerly awaiting results of compition. The ceremony began with introduction of guests.

Who were heads of various companies, organization such as VCCI, Kemrock, Madhav Group, Inox India,Alembic pharma, ISRO etc. The audience was spellbound by the stellar speech of Ms. Divya Bhatt, Head Process Cluster,L&T IES, who addressed the youth as "GenZ". Dr. G. P. Vadodaria Registrar, GTU also appealed the students to be part of GTU's initiatives. Winners of more then 40 technical, non technical and management events were awarded with cash prizes and certificates. It was not just moment of recognizing the true talent of young minds but indeed a small step by BITS edu campus and backed by GTU to recognize these skills and nurture them.

Cultural Eve

BITS edu campus is full of talented students which bubbles on the surface and ready to explode. The stage was set and the talent was aptly displayed during the cultural evening on 14th march 2014. About hundred students of our institute put together event for an evening of joyous celebration, such as rib tickling comic plays, of heart-warming musical skits on student life, of mellifluous music of our in-house band and rhythmic dance performances. There were several dance performances ranging across many genres – from Indian classical to Indian folk to the western styles. An in-house band of the institute inaugurated the evening and entertained the audience by performing some of the most popular songs of recent times. There was also a musical drama on the lives of students which while being funny was equally touching. The spoof on the popular television show 'Aap Ki Adalat' was an uproarious affair which left the audience in splits. The evening ended with a dance performance on a medley of current Bollywood hits.

EDM Night

All's well that ends well. GTU Tech Fest: Zone 3 ended with a blast- literally a confetti blast, as we danced to the music of DJ Clement D'Souza – one of the top DJs of India. On the evening of 15th march, some 4000 people gathered in BITS edu campus to tap their feet to the thumping beats of Electronic Dance Music of DJ Clement of the sunburn fame. The party was a huge success and many people across the city came to attend.

Blood Donation Camp

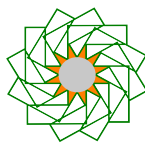

At BITS edu campus attention is paid to the development of a student's value system as much as to his/her academic and co-curricular development. Fulfilling our social responsibility and being an institute which is aware and upstanding, we organised blood donation camp as a part of GTU Tech Fest: Zone 3. Blood donations are crucial for the survival of thalassemia patients and for saving the lives of victims of a major tragedy. Students and faculty of BITS edu campus and many students of various other colleges who came to participate in the technical festival donated their blood and contributed to this noble cause.

Celebrating Success of GTU Tech Fest: Zone 3

We created a wonderful team with a number of people with complimentary skills all working towards the success of Ahvaan. We divided the various tasks meticulously and so success came to us in multiples . As it has been rightly said by Henry Ford, " If everyone is moving forward together then success takes care of itself".
