

GUJARAT TECHNOLOGICAL UNIVERSITY

M. E. Town & Country Planning (Branch Code - 48)

Year – II (Semester – III) (W.E.F. June 2013)

Subject: Professional Planning Studio (734801)

Design portfolio in planning addresses plan evaluation and appraisal of development plan of a city of nearly 1.0 lac population is to be taken up and study is to cover, objectives, surveys, growth potentials and one land use plan of the development plan adopted, and is evaluated for the policy, planning design, implementation procedure and development controls regarding the land use. Critical and exhaustive study shall be made past and present development plans and compare the changes over a period of time for the urban center. State government and central government Policy implications, poverty alleviation, urban infrastructure, physical planning, land reservations, micro level planning strategies, economic development initiatives, public health related aspects, urban green, tourism and other development potential shall be evaluated. Interaction with officials involved at key posts in the city as well as citizens shall be included and annexed in the report.

The students shall carry out the study work in group of maximum 4 students. Students are required to visit town/ urban center under study for at least a week's duration and discuss various developmental particulars with different authority and agencies involved. The work shall be presented in the form of typed report on A4 size paper along with necessary drawing properly folded in A4 size. Reports shall be submitted in hard and soft copies as per the University requirements.